1. Information

This game shall help to easily understand other people's cultural background and explain where they are coming from (country and personal view of themselves)

2. Description

First form teams, who interview each other for 5 to 10 min.

Central question:

Which stay abroad impressed you the most- what was so special about it?

Does your family have any migrationbackground? (parents, relatives, starting with 15 km)

Is there any international influence in your daily life?

3. Adaptations

4. Evaluation / Debriefing

In the end each person introduces his partner to the whole group. Please ensure that the timeframe is kept. (60 seconds per introduction)

After these presentation the whole group will have an overview of the participants and their backgrounds. They evaluate their different views and exchange experiences and find similarities.
